

Have you ever wanted to learn some Spanish but never have the time? Do you find that it would be helpful for you to know some Spanish? Do you want to take advantage of a great opportunity to spice up a long work day?

The Center for Multicultural Health is pleased to announce an entry level Spanish class with a new instructor for Basic Spanish. Our new instructor, Richard Goers, speaks multiple languages and comes to us with a wide range of experience including teaching Spanish to adults at the university level.

The class will meet for 2 hours per week for 14 weeks, from September 15th through December 15th. Classes will be held in the Cannon Building on Tuesdays from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m. It is limited to 12 participants, so consider your schedule and register as soon as you can.

Prospective participants must have permission from their program managers to enroll. An Authorization Form must be completed which will authorize the program to cover the cost of the class which will be $99 for new students and $89 for returning students. The form will be provided to those who enroll.

For further information or to enroll in the class, contact Christine Espinel at cespinel@utah.gov or 801-538-9453.
