

UTAH OFFICE OF PRIMARY CARE AND RURAL HEALTH

Utah Rural Health Photo Contest

Celebrating the Beauty of Rural Utah

The Utah Office of Primary Care and Rural Health (OPCRH) announces the Annual Utah Rural Photo Contest. We encourage you to be creative and share visually what “rural” means to you!

We have requested to the Governor Gary R. Herbert declares the week of November 13 -19, 2016 as Rural Health Week in Utah and encourage rural communities to celebrate with activities that improve the health of rural Utahns.

CONTEST DEADLINE

Contestants are welcome to submit one or more photos until 5:00 p.m. on Monday, October 24, 2016.

SUBMITTING PHOTOS

Please submit up to 8 photos in a .jpeg format with your best minimum resolution to opcrh@utah.gov. Please complete and include the Media Consent Form/Photo Entry with your submission.

JUDGING

Photos will be judged by the Office of Primary Care and Rural Health based on creativity, originality, photo quality, how well they communicate the concept of “rural,” and overall appeal. Winners will be notified by November 7, 2016 and photos will be posted on the OPCRH website.

USABILITY

Upon submission, all photos become the sole property of the Utah Department of Health and can be used for any purpose with credit to the photographer.

PRIZES

- 1st Place: Framed Utah National Park
- 2nd Place: Computer backpack
- 3rd Place: Computer backpack

QUESTIONS? Contact Owen Quiñonez at quinone@utah.gov or 801-273-6620, or Colton Gordon at coltongordon@utah.gov or 801-273-6618.

Use of copyrighted materials prohibited. Photos submitted must be your own work, royalty free and taken in 2016

The National Organization of State Offices of Rural Health created National Rural Health Day as a way to showcase rural America and increase awareness of rural health-related issues.

Funds (100%) provided by the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) grant award #U68HP11436 and #H95RH00129 through the Office of Primary Care and Rural Health, Utah Department of Health.